Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that a Central Co-operative Bank has been started at Bangalore and registered under the Mysore Co-operative Societies Regulation III of 1905, whose chief object is to grant loans to other co-operative societies in the State. Applications for loans are at present received by me from the societies concerned, and on my recommendation, the Central Bank grants the loan. The amounts so granted by the Bank have to be sent to the societies c o n-cerned and the only mode in which it can be so done at present is by means of money order or a registered post which involves some extra expenditure chargeable to the borrowing societies. The Government of India have in their No. 1390 -174 -2 dated 18th August 1906 addressed to the Madras Government, allowed
